

NMBI Summer Series

A conversation about nursing and midwifery by nurses and midwives

Co-hosted with:

School of Nursing and Midwifery

Children's Nursing in the Community – Care Closer to Home

The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland (NMBI) will be co-hosting a Summer Series event with University College Cork on Tuesday, 7 June 2022.

The panel event will discuss the need to increase community and outreach services to children and their families, for the continuing delivery of safe, high-quality care in the community. Champions for change will highlight their work to date and discuss what more can be done to provide health services to children closer to and in their homes. A parent of a child who uses these services will share his experiences of children's health services. The evening is also an opportunity to hear from leading experts in the field of children's nursing and from NMBI representatives on future plans for education in nursing.

This is an in-person event only and is not being livestreamed.

You can register to attend on Eventbrite.

Date: Tuesday, 7 June 2022

Time: 17:00 to 19:00

Location: Brookfield Health Science Complex, College Road, Cork, T12 AK54

Children's Nursing in the Community

Joe

Ellen

The NMBI Summer Series is an opportunity for professionals in both academic and clinical fields of expertise to come together to discuss the future for nursing and midwifery, to probe innovations in practice and to examine new ideas.